- Brief Report of the Programme/Activity:-

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Smt. Mathubai Garware Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Sangli, organised a Skill Development Workshop to introduce students to various skill-oriented courses and encourage them to develop their creative and practical abilities.

The programme began with the welcome and introductory remarks by Dr. Urmila Kshirsagar, IQAC Coordinator. The guests and resource persons were introduced by Prof. Dr. Vinayak Homanore. The programme was presided over by Prof. Dr. Anil Sugate, I/C Principal, who delivered effective, practical and impressive guidance on the occasion. His valuable guidance motivated the students to make the best use of the various skill-development opportunities introduced through the workshop, while Prof. Dr. Nandini Kale, Vice-Principal, graced the programme with her presence. Prof. Tushar Kulkarni proposed the vote of thanks and Prof. Pratik Gijavanekar compered the programme.

During the workshop, Mrs. Rati Daptardar provided information about the Bharatanatyam Course and explained its importance as a traditional performing art and a means of developing artistic skills and discipline. Mrs. Poornima Upalavikar introduced the students to the Chess Course, highlighting the importance of chess in developing concentration, strategic thinking, decision-making and problem-solving abilities.

Mr. Vijay Mane gave information about the Photography Course and explained the opportunities it offers for developing creative and technical skills in photography. Mrs. Sunita Chavan provided information about Music, Karaoke and Singing, encouraging students to explore their musical interests and develop their singing and performance skills.

The active participation of the resource persons and the guidance provided during the programme made the workshop meaningful and useful for the students.
