- Brief Report of the Programme/Activity: -

The Department of English, Smt. Mathubai Garware Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Sangli, organized One Day Workshop on UGC–SET / NET (English), on Sunday, 23 August 2026, from 1.00 p.m. to 2.30 p.m. through Google Meet. The programme was organized as an academic initiative to guide and motivate students who aspire to qualify for UGC–SET / NET examination and pursue their future in higher education, teaching and research. The main purpose of the programme was to bridge the gap between students' academic learning and the practical requirements of examinations. The session aimed to provide students with clear direction, effective preparation strategies, examination awareness and confidence. It also sought to encourage students to look at UGC–SET / NET is not merely as an examination but as an important step towards a promising academic career. The programme began with a welcome by Dr. V. V. Joshi, who extended a cordial welcome to the resource person, faculty members and students. Smt. S. M. Takare introduced the programme and highlighted its academic significance.

The major segment of the programme was the Expert Guidance Session delivered by Dr. Vrinda Lokhande. She provided valuable and practical guidance to the students regarding UGC–SET / NET preparation in English. Her guidance focused on understanding the examination pattern and syllabus, developing conceptual clarity, selecting appropriate study material, planning preparation systematically and making effective use of available resources. She emphasized that successful preparation requires regular study, disciplined practice, revision, time management and a focused approach. The resource person also encouraged students to develop a habit of reading widely and systematically, particularly in areas relevant to English studies. The session also motivated students to remain consistent and confident throughout their preparation.

The programme was further enriched by the Presidential Address delivered by prof. (Dr.) A. S. Sugate, I/C Principal and HOD- Department of English. He encouraged students to make meaningful use of such academic opportunities. He focused the importance of setting clear goals, developing a positive attitude towards examinations and working with dedication to achieve academic excellence. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Smt. S. B. Golangade, who expressed gratitude to the resource person, Principal, Vice-Principal, Programme Coordinator, faculty members, and students for their valuable support and participation and making the programme successful.
