Sub: Invitation to deliver a lecture on "Ethics and Manners".

Respected Madam,

It gives us immense pleasure to inform you that our college has successfully completed 12 years of professional courses B.B.A. and B.C.A. In spite of being conventional college, we have shown remarkable results and improvements in the professional fields.

As for the students along with the theoretical knowledge we are looking forward for the overall development of the students in every field. We would be very glad if an eminent and an expert personality like you can broaden the knowledge of our students and focus on the above life skills through your lecture.

We have arranged the lecture on 01/10/2018.

Thanking You

Department of Psychology

World suicide Prevention Day

Dated: 10th September 2018, 9:15am

On the occasion of World Suicide Prevention Day, Department of Psychology organised an Interactive session on "Suicide Prevention". Dr V.M Honmore , HOD Dept of Psychology was the organiser of the session who gave his inaugural speech and welcomed everyone on behalf of Dept of Psychology.

Dr. VatanBhosale, receiver of the doctorate level research in the area of "Suicidal tendencies and Personality" was the key speaker for the session. Students from first, second and third year of Arts stream participated with large number in the session. Session was aimed at understanding the current situation in the world as well as India about the rate and reasons for suicides. Suicide being the second cause of deaths amongst the age group of 13 to 30 years; it is need to consider the causes and find effective techniques to prevent suicides. Statistical data about the suicide rate was pictorially demonstrated in the session.

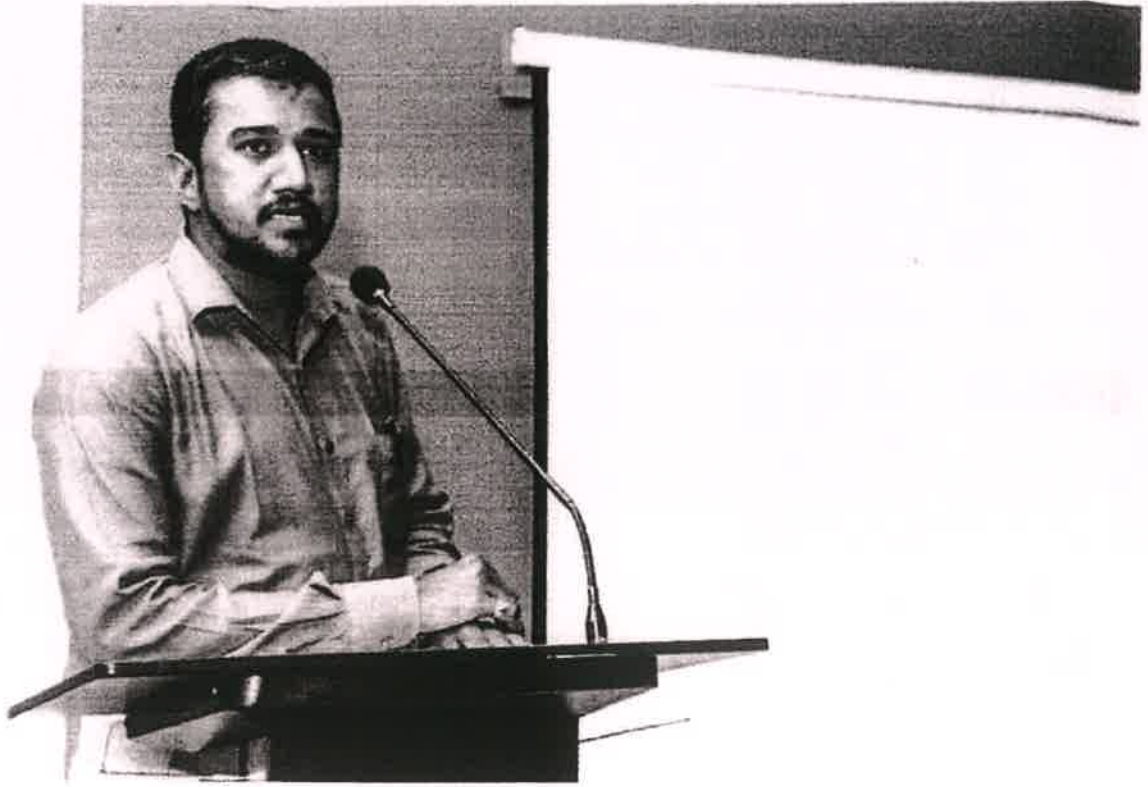

What are the important reasons for suicides were discussed according to the age groups and the gender. Males tend to commit suicide while on other hand females tend to attempt suicide was a major gender difference to be studied in this area. Reasons such as depression, academic failures, family issues, breakups, unemployment or underemployment and major diseases were seen to be the significant causes of suicides.

Speaker also discussed various clues that a person with suicidal ideation may give out to his friends and family members when in phase of attempting suicide. There are various important thing to do and also not to do while dealing with the person with suicidal ideation. Being with the person and valuing his presence is supposedly the most important aspect of preventing suicides.

On this note, Principal Dr. R G Kulkarni Sir gave his presidential address noting that self-care and positive attitude towards the ups and downs of life are the keys to stay away from suicidal ideation. To conclude, Ms Sai Joshi the vote of thanks to all the organisers, chief speaker, Anchors Ms.SurekhaKagal and Ms Salina Baragdar and most importantly to the students who participated in the session.

World Mental Health Day

Dated: 10th October 2018

As declared by World health organisation, 10th of October is observed as World Mental Health day. The theme for year 2018-2019 is declared to be "Young people and mental health in the changing world". Department of psychology organised a guidance lecture of Honourable Collector of Sangli District, Mr. Vijay Kalam-Patil for the young students of this college.

Principal of Smt Mathubai Garware Kanya Mahavidyalay Dr. R G Kulkarni gave away his key note address and welcomed the guests for the program. Honourable Collector of Sangli District, Mr. Vijay Kalam-Patil having done his education in Psychology and having served as a lecturer in psychology was the chief speaker for the session. The session was anchored by Prof. Asmita Kelkar.

Mr. Vijay Kalam-Patil discussed the philosophy of life in an extremely friendly manner with the students. He shared the role of psychological theories and the way he tries to apply them in his work area with lots of real life examples. Then he put some light over the major threats that every individual comes across in his life time and the way of looking at hurdles. According to him perception matters a lot and if you look at a difficult situation as a challenge then you can turn it into an opportunity. What

Principal,
S.M.G. Kanya Mahavidyalaya

majorly matters is the mindset and not the appearance of an individual to outperform the competitors. He showed us his love for literature by explaining various emotions in every phase of life with beautiful poems, Sanskrit subhashits and songs. This just proved the importance of giving time to your hobbies irrespective of the hectic work schedule, if you want to have a healthy mental state.

He spoke in a very friendly, poetic and humorous way eventually keeping the students totally involved in the session. This session was surely a very rare and interesting experience for one and all who attended it. HOD Dept of Psychology Dr.VinayakHonmore ended the session with his vote of thanks and valedictory speech.

Sub: Invitation to conduct workshop on "Employability Enhancement and Youth Livelihood Programme".

Respected Madam,

It gives us immense pleasure to inform you that our college has successfully completed 16 years of professional courses B.B.A. and B.C.A. In spite of being conventional college, we have shown remarkable results and improvements in the professional field.

As for the students along with the theoretical knowledge we are looking forward for the overall development of the students in every field. We would be very glad if a reputed organisation like Naandi Foundation like yours can organise a workshop on Employability Enhancement and Youth Livelihood programme for holistic development of our students, through your efficient trainers.

We have arranged the workshop from 28/03/2022 to 31/03/2022 for BCA-III year students.

Thanking You,

(Dr. R.G. Kulkarni)
